My Service Learning Project

What I accomplished

I made Holiday cards for the Veterans in the VA Hospital in Wilkes-Barre, PA. The inside of each card contained a greeting message and two facts about a December constellation and what each star resembles. Each card was handmade and decorated with Christmas icons. Anyone can see the constellations no UNITED STATES

Why did I chose this?

I chose this task as my service project because I think the Veterans who served to us. Many people don't act like they

What's the outcome?

I'm hoping these cards brighten the days of the Veterans. I wanted them to take 5 minutes of their day to read each card and be able to know we're all thinking about them. I think that's the least they deserve for all the hard work and
